Dear Khant:

Congratulations! We have reviewed your application and would like to offer you preliminary acceptance into the Undeclared program at Truman State University as a Freshman student for the Fall 2022 term.

Based on the strength of your past accomplishments, we are also prepared to offer you the following renewable award for your first two semesters at Truman State University:

International President's Honorary Scholarship: $12,000

This scholarship package is potentially renewable by meeting Truman's scholarship renewal requirements.

To confirm this preliminary offer, you must complete all remaining items on the checklist shown in your Application Portal.

If you have any questions about this preliminary offer or your remaining requirements, please contact our international admission team. If you wish to decline this preliminary offer, you may do so by completing our Application Update Form.

We hope that you will complete your admissions requirements and join us at Truman in Fall 2022!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Melanee Crist". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Melanee" written in a larger, more prominent script than the last name "Crist".
